Looking back, looking forward...

2022 was a great year for the Forum – our HR community grew and we had some fantastic events including both our regular forum sessions and the highly successful first conference in December.

Among the things you told us you enjoyed most about the conference were the calibre of the speakers, the business stands, the opportunities for shared learning and networking with peers and the friendly atmosphere – the ‘good vibe’. You also said it was extremely well organised with good communications.

OVERALL 89% were satisfied / extremely satisfied it was valuable use of time 100% found it enjoyable / very enjoyable
 89% were extremely satisfied with conference organisation
 94% were extremely satisfied with conference comms

“ The talks were relevant to the challenges we are all currently experiencing so some very useful and valuable content. ”

“ My first Positive HR Forum conference was simply amazing. I would like to congratulate Kaye Massey and her team. I am still buzzing and feel energised from the discussions we had. ”
