

POSITIVE HR NEWS

Positive HR Forum

Celebrating our 4th birthday in style

February's Forum was a great way to mark this four-year milestone and we enjoyed an excellent presentation by Logic Resourcing's Steve Dufresne and Lee Quoroll, giving us many insights into the challenges and potential solutions to recruiting in today's world.

Held at the iconic Potter's Club in Stoke, it was a 'full house' and we are continuing to build our core group of regular attendees, as evidenced by the enthusiastic response to our offer of 'season tickets' covering the whole year's Forum events. We hold a few other tickets in reserve for each meeting, but places are limited, so if you need one of these, we recommend you book early to avoid disappointment. Future topics include Onboarding Best Practice, the Multigenerational Workforce and Talent Development.

And finally, we have received a big thank you from the Staffordshire branch of MIND for the £382 raised by the Forum during the last year. Chief Executive Kate Boundy told us: 'We were super pleased that you chose to support us – as we already get lots out of the forum via our membership and the fab events you put on. The donations we receive really do help us to reach out to support even more local people.'

It's now time to choose our next charity of the year. If you would like to nominate an organisation, please CLICK HERE. We will consider nominations for any local charity (or the local branch of a national charity) whose aims are aligned with those of the Forum: improving employee wellbeing.

NEXT MEETING

Employee Engagement:

what is it and how we measure it effectively

At April's meeting, our guest speaker will be Forum Founder Kaye Massey – owner of employee engagement survey company 'Listen To Your Team.'

During the session, she will lead us in exploring what is meant by an 'engaged employee,' share her wealth of experience as a consultant in this field and offer advice on how to get the best results from your employee survey projects.

20 April 2023 at 9:30am – 12:00pm
Port Vale Football Club, Hamil Road,
Burslem, Stoke-on-Trent, Staffs ST6 1AW

Other dates: 8 June 2023 / 14 September 2023 / 9 November 2023
