Planning for more member benefits

With just one more meeting to go this year, we are already turning our thoughts to how we can develop, grow and offer even more benefits for our members in the future.

Based on feedback from our latest Member Survey, some new benefits being considered by the Committee are:

Resource library / Member Communications Group
Exclusive member discounts / HR Wellbeing support
Colleague attendee discounts

And talking about that final meeting, we will be holding our End of Year celebration lunch immediately following the forum on the 13th November. More details to follow.

Back to September's meeting, and we were pleased to welcome our new Charity of the Year, MY CWA (Cheshire Without Abuse), where Helen Mitchell shared details about the amazing work they do and the support they provide to thousands of adults and children who are impacted by domestic abuse.

It was also an opportunity to hear about their new training arm designed to raise awareness and practical policies in businesses and other organisations. CLICK HERE to find out more.

AI: the future of work

Thanks to Ben for another truly insightful session...

He talked about the amazing advances in AI technology and the significant uptake in using AI tools in the last year – it was interesting to see the number of people in the room who were now using tools to support their roles compared to 12 months ago.

HR has a significant role to play in ensuring the right governance and policies are in place to ensure staff within our teams use it in an ethical way – embracing this new technology but staying 'human first'.
